

Doug Suppelsa

B.Sc.

Senior Operator/Trainer

Experience
Is the Difference
xcgtraining.com

Doug has over 30 years of experience in the water and wastewater industry. Doug developed and delivered many courses at the original MOE training centre in Brampton. He has also trained First Nations operators in New Post. He taught the Environmental Technology course at Durham College in 2006.

Education

- B.Sc., University of Waterloo, 1972

Licenses

- Wastewater Treatment Class III
- Water Treatment Class II

Professional Experience

XCG Training and Operations Inc. – Senior Operator/Trainer 2007-Present

GENIVAR/OWOTC (MacViro)– Trainer 2005 - 2007

Durham College 2006

- Taught second year Environmental Technology class and laboratory – Oshawa campus (Sept-Dec 2006)

Group Leader – Region of Durham Works Department 1974-2004

- Lead group of junior, intermediate and senior technicians working on various projects related to surface water supply plants, well supplies, water pumping stations, water storage facilities, water pollution control plants, sewage pumping stations, sludge dewatering and incineration systems.
- Troubleshoot problems at the water and wastewater facilities – which included 6 surface water supply plants, 27 well supplies, 9 water pollution control plants and 43 sewage pumping stations.
- Compliance of water treatment plants with MOE regulations (O. Reg. 170/03, amended to O. Reg. 269/03) Ontario Drinking Water Quality Standards, Certificates of Approval and Permits to take Water for the facilities.
- Group produced annual water quality reports and the annual water summary reports.
- Coordinated Durham Region comments on original draft MOE consolidated Certificates of Approval for all 15 water supply plant facilities.